12 Members of the Public present, Given the topic present the Chair agreed an adjustment to the time of 10 Minutes per person if necessary.

Some of the members of the public present spoke to raise concerns regarding the village hall and the ongoing discussions involving the playing field committee (PFC). Comments included views on the current arrangements, historic responsibilities, and general dissatisfaction with the situation. A previous Chair and long-standing village resident with historic involvement in the village hall also quoted from previous minutes about the history of the hall and how it came about and how the management had developed over time. There was a casual request for more information around the property deeds and the constitution which will be attended to.

Public session closed 20.01

288. Declaration of Pecuniary or Non-Pecuniary Interest

Cllr RS Wilson Item 290.b

289. Planning

- a. To Comment: Planning Consultation for 25/02701/PLF Site Of Travellers Rest Main Street Long Riston East Riding Of Yorkshire HU11 5JF (Change of use of building to 2no. dwellings and erection of 2no. dwellings with associated access, car parking and landscaping)

The Parish Council resolved to support this application. While we do not condone the past actions associated with the developer, our community has expressed a desire to find a resolution to this site, which it expressed in a formal community questionnaire. There is concern that the stagnation of the site and buildings are having a detrimental effect on the parish and many of its residents.

Proposed Cllr RS Wilson Seconded Cllr P Brown (5 in favour and 1 not indicating support, and the motion was carried by majority)

- b. To Comment: Planning Consultation for 25/03050/PLF, Bellfield, Arnold Lane East, Long Riston, HU11 5HY (Works to existing vehicular entrance comprising construction of hardstanding surface up to the highway, installation of gravel to the internal driveway and erection of fencing and gates)
All in agreement to Support, Proposed Cllr J Britton Seconded Cllr RS Wilson

- c. Noted: Planning Granted - 2 Willow Garth Main Street Long Riston East Riding Of Yorkshire HU11 5JQ (Construction of a vehicular access (dropped kerb), driveway and new step with handrails following removal of ramp)
